What is an Athenian Dialogue? Athenian Dialogues explore leadership principles and practice, drawing on the insights contained in a book that all participants have read. Dialogues are conversations in which clerks share their experience and understanding as it relates to the ideas of the author and the relevance of those ideas to their public leadership role.

About our Facilitator, Dawn Michanowicz, MMC, CMMC:

Dawn has been a candidate for the US Foreign Service, owned both an import/export business and a dance studio, as has more recently become a certified Reflexologist and Energy Medicine practitioner. With eighteen years in Town Clerk’s offices, including eight as Town Clerk of Sterling, Massachusetts, Dawn has been teaching Clerks since 2015. This is her fifteenth Athenian Dialogue and first Athenian Dialogue as a Facilitator!

About our book: “Eleanor Roosevelt’s remarkable ability to confront and overcome hurdles—be they political, personal, or social—made her one of the greatest leaders of the last century, if not all time. In Leadership the Eleanor Roosevelt Way, author and scholar Robin Gerber examines the values, tactics, and beliefs that enabled Eleanor Roosevelt to bring about tremendous change—in herself and in the world. Examining the former first lady’s rise from a difficult childhood to her enormously productive and politically involved years in the White House, as a U.N. delegate and an honorary ambassador, an author, and beyond, Gerber offers women an inspiring road map to heroic living and an unparalleled model for personal achievement.” Book Description From: www.amazon.com

A Note from Dawn: “This is a great little book filled with snippets of Eleanor’s philosophies, quotes and insights of the world in the 1940’s, containing golden nuggets of leadership tips that are pertinent today. As you read these 12 chapters, take notes. Mark up what speaks to you! We’ll have fun exchanging thoughts and I have some surprises in store for our dialogue. See you Sept 27th.
p.s. Wear walking shoes!”
