

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 2024

Athenian Dialogue

What is an Athenian Dialogue?
Dialogues are conversations in which clerks share their experience and understanding relating to the ideas of the author and the relevance of those ideas to their public leadership role.

9:00 a.m to 3:30 p.m.

(with working lunch)

Bristol City Hall

111 North Main Street

Bristol, CT 06010

Earn 3 points towards
CMC or MMC after completion of an assessment. Book must be read beforehand.

$100.00

Includes lunch but does not include book. Obtain the book on your own.

Join one of our favorite facilitators and our IIMC Region One Director, Susan Haag, MMC, for an in-depth discussion of this compilation of some of the lessons learned by the four-star-general and former Secretary of the State Colin Powell in his renowned public service career. This memoir shares Powell's leadership lessons, emphasizing the importance of preparation, communication, and empathy. The book is a valuable guide for those interested in personal and professional development. Join your fellow municipal clerks for a fun day of learning that includes a working lunch!

Registration Form

Your Name: _____ Town/State: _____

Email: _____ Cell: _____

Proceeds to benefit the New England Assn. City Town Clerks conference in 2029. Enclose with $100 check payable to "NEACTC-CON" and mail to: Carol Anderson, City Clerk, 140 Main St., Torrington, CT 06790